Standards

The Board desires to provide a more responsive and inviting school climate and increase the level of parent, family and community involvement in PGCPS. To achieve this goal, the Board establishes the following standards:

A. All PGCPS employees will demonstrate a commitment to parent, family and community involvement in the education process and take appropriate steps to meet the mandates of this policy and the Superintendent’s Administrative Procedure.

B. Parents and families are expected to be involved in their child’s education and assume a vital role in ensuring success in school for their children.

C. Formal and informal procedures will be provided for addressing concerns of parents, family and community members.

D. All schools will provide opportunities for parents, family and community members to participate in decision making related to district-wide and school-based issues.

E. Each school will offer training and promptly provide materials to help parents and families monitor and support the academic achievement of their children. Materials and information sent home to parents shall be provided in clear and understandable format and language.

F. The Superintendent shall develop and require schools to use effective communication methods to ensure that all families, regardless of income, ethnic background, or language, whose children attend PGCPS, share and receive school-to-home, and home-to-school communications about district, school and classroom programs, and student progress. Such information shall be provided in a format and language that parents can understand.

G. PGCPS shall comply with the requirements of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB) related to parent, family and community involvement, including:

1. Meaningful consultation with parents of children participating in PGCPS schools to plan and operate programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents consistent with Section 1118 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA); and,

2. An annual review of this policy in their schools.

Parents' Bill of Rights and Responsibilities

To encourage active engagement between parents and schools, parents have the following rights:

A. A free public school education for their child, from kindergarten until age 21, or receipt of a high school diploma, whichever comes first, as provided by law;
B. Access to current information regarding services which are provided by the school system, eligibility for these services, and how to apply for them (e.g., food services, transportation, health services, remediation, special education services, English Language Learner (ELL) instruction);
C. Receipt of information concerning expectations for their child with response to the educational program, attendance and behavior (Code of Student Conduct);
D. Receipt of information regarding Board Policies, Administrative Procedures, and federal and state laws and regulations which require parent consultation at the school, administrative or Board level;
E. Access to information concerning their child’s instructional program, including but not limited to, course of study or curriculum and the grading criteria;
F. Access and review of their child’s education records and assurance of confidentiality of their child’s records in accordance with state and federal laws;
G. To be treated with courtesy and respect by all school system personnel;
H. To participate in regular written or verbal communication and/or parent-teacher conferences with teachers and other school staff and share concerns regarding their child’s academic, social and behavioral progress;
I. Receive important notices from the school, including notices about parent-teacher conference, meetings of parent organizations, school-based management meetings and school activities;
J. Right to appeal to the Board the decisions of the Superintendent regarding transfers, discipline and other matters as defined in Board Policy 4200; and,
K. Right to file a complaint if their child is subjected to discrimination, harassment, and/or bullying.

All parents are responsible for:

A. Ensuring that their child attends school regularly and arrives on time;
B. Reviewing notices received from the school and responding to the school’s requests for information and providing updated and accurate contact information in a timely manner;

C. Refraining from disruptive and disrespectful behavior and treating all members of the school with courtesy and respect;

D. Taking part in school and community programs that provide for parents to participate in educational decision making for their child;

E. Teaching their child to respect the safety, property and rights of others and the obligation to refrain from engaging in intimidating, harassing or discriminatory behavior; and,

F. Maintaining contact with their child’s teachers and the school principal about the progress of their child’s education.

Implementation

The Superintendent is directed to develop strategies to encourage involvement of parents, family and community in PGCPS. The Superintendent is further directed to implement this Policy by enacting an Administrative Procedure that includes, but is not limited to, the process to develop a district wide parental involvement plan and school level procedures for involvement of parents, families and communities in PGCPS.

The Superintendent shall report to the Board annually, on or by July 31, on the implementation of this Policy.
